Center for Puerto Rican Studies at Hunter College

Job Opening: Publications Aide

Location: Center for Puerto Rican Studies, Hunter College, CUNY
East Building, 68th St & Lexington Ave.

Schedule: Flexible, 19-21 hours per week

Start Date: Available immediately

Closing Date: Open until filled

Compensation: Hourly rate is commensurate with work experiences, salary history and falls within established university guidelines

Assignments & Supervision: Work under the direct supervision of the Publications Coordinator.

Description and Duties:
The Publications Aide will assist the Publications Coordinator and support the publications team in the production of organizational publications, which may include journals, books, posters, catalogs, brochures, and promotion materials such as newsletters, reports, postcards, and fliers. The Publications Aide will also be directly involved in the publication of Centro Voices, Centro’s weekly e-magazine. Essential duties may include copy-editing, copywriting, fact-checking, research, and some administrative work

Qualifications:
The ideal candidate is working on or has recently completed a Bachelor’s Degree in Puerto Rican/Latino Studies, English, journalism, or a related field. Excellent communication skills in English and Spanish preferred. Familiarity with publishing and editing software, including the Microsoft suite, required. Familiarity with academic databases and/or graphic design software is helpful. The ideal candidate has a passion for and familiarity with issues related to the Puerto Rican experience in the United States.

To apply: Forward cover letter, resume and contact information for 2 professional references via e-mail to José deJesús, Associate Director for Operations, Center for Puerto Rican Studies, Hunter College, CUNY at jdejesus@hunter.cuny.edu . The subject line of the email should read: Publications Aide Telephone queries: (212) 772-5706.

About the Center for Puerto Rican Studies at Hunter College
The Center for Puerto Rican Studies is a research institute dedicated to the study and interpretation of the Puerto Rican experience in the United States, producing and disseminating relevant interdisciplinary research. Centro also collects preserves and provides access to library and archival resources documenting Puerto Rican history and heritage. We seek to link scholarship to social action and policy debates, and to contribute to the betterment of our community and enrichment of Puerto Rican studies. centropr.hunter.cuny.edu

Hunter College, located in the heart of Manhattan, is the largest college in the City University of New York (CUNY). Founded in 1870, it is also one of the oldest public colleges in the country.