Las 3 Hermanas: Art, Education & Activism

Centro hosts the final stop of this exhibition which illustrates the lives and contributions of three sisters: Evelina Lópex Antonetty, an iconic activist; Lillian López, one of the first Puerto Rican librarians in the NY Public Library system; and Elba Cabrera, who established herself as an ambassador and advocate for the arts.

The Centro Library Archives holds the collections of these three distinguished pioneers of the Puerto Rican Community.

On view November 8, 2017 through January 2018. Monday to Friday, 10:00am - 5:00pm
