

V
I T
O

*“You only live once and it is best to live life with one’s conscience rather than to accept with silence those things one believes to be against the interests of one’s people
and one’s nation.”
- Vito Marcantonio*

MARCANTONIO

Wednesday, November 28, 6:00 - 8:30 pm

HUNTER COLLEGE, WEST BUILDING - FACULTY DINING ROOM, 8TH FLOOR

PRESENTERS Gerald Meyer, Professor at Hostos Community College “Vito Marcantonio: Fighter for Puerto Rico’s Independence” Edgardo Meléndez, Professor at Hunter College “Marcantonio and Luis Muñoz Marín: Cooperation and Conflict”

MODERATOR Gil Fagiani, Artist & Poet PERFORMANCE PIECES BY LuLu LoLo Pascale and Roberto Ragone

CO-SPONSORS Vito Marcantonio Forum & Italian American Studies Association

Events are free and open to the public. Events subject to change.
Please RSVP: (212) 396-6545 or centroev@hunter.cuny.edu
For updated information and live streaming: centropr.hunter.cuny.edu
Centro Events receive a generous donation from The New York City Council