

Hostos175

HOSTOS COMMUNITY COLLEGE-CUNY
INVITES PROPOSALS FOR THE CONFERENCE:

EUGENIO MARÍA DE HOSTOS:
NEW READINGS AND ALTERNATIVE INTERPRETATIONS

November 13, 2014,
Hostos Community College, New York City

In commemoration of the 175th Anniversary of Hostos's birth, this conference will bring together new readings and alternative interpretations of Hostos's many contributions to Latin America, the Hispanic Caribbean, and to Latinos and Latinas in the United States. We invite proposals dealing with, but not limited to, any of the following: Hostos and race, gender, religion, history, freemasonry, education, philosophy, inter-American relations, transatlantic exchanges, democracy, and civil society. Proceedings will be published in the Hostos Review.

Proposals for presentations (250 words maximum) and CV should be submitted to Prof. Ernest Ialongo at eialongo@hostos.cuny.edu by October 3, 2014.

This event is co-sponsored by the CUNY Dominican Studies Institute (City College) and the Center for Puerto Rican Studies (Hunter College)

Hostos175 site: <http://bit.ly/1n8maxr>

