Job opening: Web Developer: full-time equivalent status preferred or part-time status.

Compensation: $20-30 per hour based on experience and qualifications.
Hourly rate falls within established university guidelines.

Location: Center for Puerto Rican Studies, Hunter College, CUNY
Room 1437 East Building, 68th St & Lexington Ave.

Schedule: Flexible schedule, full time equivalent 35 hours per week, or part-time 19-20 hours per week.

Start Date: Available immediately

Closing Date: Open until filled

Description and Duties:
The Center for Puerto Rican Studies at Hunter College (Centro) is looking for a Web Developer to assist with the on-going development of Centro's website, specifically with responsive web design for Drupal 7. The Web Developer will work under the joint supervision of Centro Outreach and Partnerships Coordinator and the Centro webmaster.

Specific Responsibilities:
• Working on responsive web design and mobile design
• Developing and improving site navigation.
• Creating the look of new features according to Centro's branding.
• One web design project with high priority is the Puerto Rican Heritage Cultural Ambassadors Program.

1. Web Development
• Write well designed, testable, efficient code by using best software development practices.
• Create site layout/user interface.
• Integrate data from various back-end services and databases.
• Gather and refine specifications and requirements based on technical needs.
• Be responsible for maintaining, expanding, and scaling our site.
• Stay plugged into emerging technologies/industry trends specifically for Drupal platforms and apply them into operations and activities.
• Cooperate with web designers to match visual design intent.

2. Web Design
• Experience in CSS web design, PHP, front-end development, and functionality of Drupal 7 and Drupal 8.
• Understand the vision, components and needs of Centro's new website.
• Familiarity with Centro's branding and has working knowledge SEO, Social Media, E-Commerce integration.

Qualifications:
• 1-2 years of proven experience in web programming and CMS development
• Adequate knowledge of Collective Access.
- Relevant courses in computer science or a related field.
- Experience with Drupal 7 and Drupal 8.0 a must.
- Experience with Bootstrap 3.
- Demonstrated programming skills and/or web designing skills.
- Adequate knowledge of relational database systems, Object Oriented Programming and web application development.
- Basic knowledge of Search Engine Optimization process.
- Aggressive problem diagnosis and creative problem solving skills.
- Ability to work and thrive in a fast-paced environment, learn rapidly and master diverse web technologies and techniques.
- Detail oriented.
- Great communications skills.
- Works well in collective settings and individually under minimal supervision.

To apply: Forward cover letter, resume, contact information for 2 professional references, samples of previous work you have done for organizations or individuals, and, if applicable, consultant rate for non-profit institutions and colleges via e-mail to José de Jesús, Associate Director for Operations, Center for Puerto Rican Studies, Hunter College, CUNY 10065. RE: Web Developer. Email: jdejesus@hunter.cuny.edu Telephone queries: (212) 772-5706.

About the Center for Puerto Rican Studies at Hunter College
The Center for Puerto Rican Studies is a research institute dedicated to the study and interpretation of the Puerto Rican experience in the United States, producing and disseminating relevant interdisciplinary research. Centro also collects preserves and provides access to library and archival resources documenting Puerto Rican history and heritage. We seek to link scholarship to social action and policy debates, and to contribute to the betterment of our community and enrichment of Puerto Rican people. centropr.hunter.cuny.edu

Hunter College, located in the heart of Manhattan, is the largest college in the City University of New York (CUNY). Founded in 1870, it is also one of the oldest public colleges in the country.